

Alexandra O'Driscoll: Dance Tutor

Alexandra has been dancing from a very young age she trained under Rob Murphy firstly in St Mary's Youth Club and later with Dramatic Action Stage School in total nine years. She began her professional dance training with Inchicore College where she obtained advance qualifications in ISTD modern theatre dance examinations, intermediate qualifications in RAD Ballet, along with these she also obtained a diploma in dance instruction (DDI).

Alexandra recently completed her full time dance training with Morea Performing Arts College in the UK under the guidance of Kate Morea one of the creators of ISTD.

Alexandra's training also includes Jazz, lyrical, Ballet, Tap, Musical Theatre, Urban & African.

Whilst training in the UK she was also lucky enough to take regular workshops with leading West End performers. She has been working extensively as a dance teacher and choreographer since returning to Dublin two years ago. Alex is also delighted to run her own technical dance class for dramatic action students on Saturday afternoons.
