

Pauline Looney: School Administrator

Pauline plays a vital role in the overall running of the stage school and has been a primary school secretary for as long as she can remember. Pauline was also on the committee for her local variety group for many years and she adores all things theatrical.